

We the People

October 4–December 14, 2018

An exhibition of artwork by artists who face challenges. Illuminating the ability of the creative process to heal and bring us together.

We the People Exhibition and Events

October 4–December 15, 2018

Reception– October 13, 5–7pm

The Art of Being Well– December 2, 4–6:30 pm

An exploration on the therapeutic power of art making (and making art about what ails us), and a look at the related but different clinical practice of art therapy. Please join poet and author Ann Bracken, writer and spoken word artist Kondwani Fidel, art therapists Sharon Strouse and Peggy Kolodny, and the artists who exhibit in We the People: New Day Campaign in an event combining performance, readings, and conversation. Reception with light appetizers and refreshments and a hands-on therapeutic art activity begins at 4:00pm; program and conversation begins at 5:00pm.

1101 Maiden Choice Lane, Suite 200, Baltimore Md 21229
Thursday-Saturday 1-5 pm and by appointment
410-247-0260